WPSS No. 1192 of 2003

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

The petitioner was terminated in the year 1990, hence the writ petition is suffered from delay in laches. The delay in laches is not satisfactorily explained, therefore, I am not inclined to interfere under the Constitutional power. Writ petition is liable to be dismissed.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
